So you love the Cartoon Network. And you like comics, right? So why not let the world know about it? How cool would it be to have your opinions and art in a Cartoon Network comic book? VERY COOL. So what are you waiting for? Send stuff to the address below! It's just that easy!

Dear DC Comics,

I would like you to make more Cow & Chicken comics. I am ten years old, and this is my favorite show! I have never bought any comic books until now. Thanks for listening. This is very important to me.

Thanks for writing, Richie. Of course we'll make more Cow and Chicken comics— because that's our job (check out CNP #19)! Any I.M. Weasel and I.R. Baboon fans out there?

Dear Johnny Bravo,

I love your show. Please show me how to be cool. You should have your own network, the JOHNNY BOY NETWORK!!

Woah, li'l momma...that'd be one manly-type network. Sure you can handle all Johnny, all the time?

David Benbaruj

Dear Editors,

In my own opinion, I'm going to give you guys high praise for bringing back the Herculoids and Birdman in Toonami. I enjoyed it because of the original stories, color and artwork. I made a wish a long time ago that some of Hanna-Barbera's superheroes would be reunited in a comic magazine, and my wish came true.

I don't get the Cartoon Network in Vancouver, but I just wanted to let you know that I've enjoyed the Toonami series. Keep up the superb work, and don't stop delivering the goods because things are getting interesting.

Wow, we must be doing something right! We editors love to make people happy.

Dear Editor,

Re: CNP #13

It's about time you credited the folks responsible for the framing sequences in these Toonami issues. I'm not exactly fond of the "Toonami" concept, but it is a promotional tool for the network, so...!

HERCULOIDS: Joyriding teens littering and dumping waste. Sheesh. Where have I seen plots like that before? Not all molded into one, but Kraiger does a bit of plot recycling and the artwork is effective, though a tad stiff in places.

SHAZZAN: Written with '90s sensibilities. Chuck & Nancy do look a little older than when they first appeared 31 years ago, and Nancy's let her hair grow such that she can make a ponytail. Chuck is coming across as more materialistic, again representative of a stereotype of '90s teens. Somehow, I find this all wrong.

OK, I guess you can't make everyone happy — but that won't stop us from trying! Hope you liked this issue's stories. Look for more issues of TOONAMI — starring BLUE FALCON AND DYNOMUTT and GALTAR AND THE GOLDEN LANCE!

NEXT MONTH

It's FUNtastic adventure with Yogi's Treasure Hunt! Join Yogi, Boo Boo, the Ranger, Top Cat, Snagglepuss, Huckleberry Hound, Quick Draw McGraw, Augie Doggie and Dogie Daddy, and Snooper and Blabber (yay!) plus Dick Dastardly and Muttley (boo!) as they race for riches in outer space and every ol' place!

This month's cover
Art by Steve Rude, color by Bernie Mireault. Words fail us — thanks for the beautiful job, guys!
